Overview

Travelport Journey Reporter is a traveler tracking tool distributed through TMCs (Travel Management Companies). The product allows corporate travel agencies to track travelers to provide Duty of Care and to comply with corporate policy compliance for multiple travelers on the same flight.

Travelport has decided to retire the product due to its legacy technology.

Detail and Customer Examples

Travelport will retire the Travelport Journey Reporter product by 18th April 2015. All customers who are currently using the tool must discontinue use no later than this date.

As an option Travelport has partnered with e-Travel Technologies, one of our preferred partners, as an alternative that meets the demands of modern distribution. This solution alerts travelers of events that may affect their itineraries or safety, monitors events and threats as well as responds to events as they arise. Their website is: http://etraveltechnologies.com/travelport/.
